BRYAN GIVEN GRAND OVATION

Under Auspices of Tammany Hall Addressed Enthusiastic Thousands in Carnegie Hall.

GREAT OVERFLOW MEETING.

Speech Was on "Republican Tendencles"-Laid Down Four Cardinal Propositions on Labor Question.

Carnegie Hall, New York, Sept. 18 .-Democracy's presidential campaign in Greater New York had its advent tonight when William J. Bryan at a mass meeting under the auspices of Tammany Hall spoke before enthusiastic thousands who filled Carnegie hall and overflowed into the streets. The ovation accorded to the candidate was a brilliant climax to a day in which a united party paid Mr. Bryan a continuous re-leaders in the city and state called upon him.

Previous to the Carnegie hall meeting tonight Mr. Bryan was entertained at dinner at the home of Melbert E. Carey. On approaching Carnegie hall a little later. Mr. Bryan was given an ovation by a crowd of 10,000 or more persons who could not get in the hall. The candidate was taken to a flag-draped cart and from it he made a brief speech. He was cheered repeated.

brief speech. He was cheered repeatedly.

"I can speak only briefly to you, as I have a long speech to make inside," said Mr. Bryan.

"Let me call your attention to the marked difference between the Republican platform and ours. The Republican platform is different especially in not outlining necessary legislation. Our platform tells the public what we think ought to be done. We take the people into our confidence and thus we show not only our faith in the merits of our policy, but also in the intelligence of the voters.

LABOR PROPOSITIONS.

"Now there are four propositions as to labor for which we stand;
"First, we believe that there should be a department of labor with a cabinet officer at its head.
"Second, we believe that labor should be taken out of the operation of the trust law."

be taken out of the operation of the trust law.

"Third, we believe that an industrial dispute should not be sufficient cause for the issuance of an injunction.

"Fourth, we believe in trials by jury in cases of indirect contempt."

A man who claimed to be a union iron worker here attracted the attention of Mr. Bryan and asked him it is weat true that he had used the expression that workingmen were a lot of beggars when he was in Congress.

"I speak as a representative of organized labor," the man added.

"No you do not," shouted Mr. Bryan.

"My record is well enough known so that no representative of organized labor," the man added.

that no representative of organized lawould have to ask me such a ques-"Did you or did you not use that expression?" insisted the man.

Bryan answered:
"I shall not undertake now or at any other time to answer any and every statement that may be made by those who are trying to help the Republican party until they get an endorsement from the Republican party or its repre-

mr. Bryan then left the cart and went into Carnegle hall.
When Secy. Smith of Tammany Hall called the mass meeting to order every seat was filled. Chairman Herman Ridder spoke on tariff reform.

While Congressman Sulzer was speaking Mr. Bryan and his party stepped from an entrance upon the stage. It was the Bryan demonstration of 12 years ago that followed. Men leaped to their chairs and yelled and shouted, while the band played lively tunes. Chairman Ridder's voice was lost as he briefly introduced the Democratic considers.

When quiet was restored after a 10 minute outbrust of enthusiasm Mr. Bryan began his speech. He spoke as

MR. BRYAN'S SPEECH.

MR. BRYAN'S SPEECH.

Mr. Bryan took as his subject "Republican Tendencies." He said, in part:
 "Parties are to be measured not merely by the things done, but by their tendencies. Since it is easier to remedy evils in the beginning than after they are full grown, it is important to know the tendencies of parties as well as to know how far they have gone. I desire tonight to call attention to some of the tendencies of the Republican party.

Take, for instance, the matter of ex-Take, for instance, the matter of extravagance in expenditures. The tendency of the Republican party is to increase the expenditures of the government out of all proportion to the increase in the population. At the first session of the present Congress the appropriations exceeded a billion dollars. This is twice the approppriations of a session of the Fifty-first Congress, which was the highest appropriation known up to that time.

priation known up to that time. INCREASED APPROPRIATIONS. "The appropriations of the last session

"The appropriations of the last session exceeded the appropriations of the preceding year by 90 million dollars—an increase of almost 10 per cent, showing that in matters of appropriations the Republican leaders are hurrying on at an accelerated pace. And it must be remembered that this encomous increase in appropriations is at a time remembered that this enormous increase in appropriations is at a time when there is a deficit of $50,000,000 for the fiscal year. What would be the pace if they were not threatened with a lack of income? The increase in the number of officeholders is likewise enormous. The Republicans attempt to excuse their unparalleled appropriations by saying that new work is being undertaken; but this is not a sufficient answer. The appropriations in the army and navy alone show an increase of undertaken; but this is not a sufficient answer. The appropriations in the army and navy alone show an increase of $120,000,000 a year over the appropriations of 11 years ago. What excuse can be given for the trebling of the appropriations for army and navy? No nation is unfriendly to the United States; no interest all causes justify the increase. Note taide cause except imperialism of training the function of it is duffered to outside causes, and if it is duffered inside causes there is no cause except that the country has been under Republican rule.

"There are two reasons why the Republican leaders are less careful of expenditures than the Democrats. The first is to be found in the fact that the Republican leaders are more intimately associated with the taxeaters than with the taxpayers, and, being governed by public opinion with which they come into contact, they naturally lean toward extrayagance.

"The second reason is to be found in the fact that the Republican leaders have been representing taxation as a

The Pills That Cure Sciatica

by the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills is evidenced by the case of Mrs. Stewart McEwan, of Fort Hunter, Pa. She

For five months I was under a doctor's care, suffering from what he termed chronic sciatic rheumatism. The disease settled in my hips and knees and I suffered intense darting pains. So severe was the pain at times that I would have to cry out, and sometimes I was perfectly helpless. My limbs were so sore that I was unable to bear the weight sore that I was unable to bear the weight of the bed clothes over me. I was ex-tremely nervous, had no color, and did not seem to have much blood. I had no appetite and food caused me great distress. I was constipated and suffered constantly from a dull throbbing head-

'I had no strength and was reduced in fiesh until I was a mere skeleton. As the doctor could not help me, I decided to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, which were recommended by an aunt. After using the pills a short time I noticed a decided change for the better, and I kept on with them until the rheugive the people as much of the blessing as possible. They argue that we should have a high tariff whether we need the revenue or not, but recognizing that there is some opposition to unnecessary taxation, they try to make the appropriations high enough to compel the extortionate tariff rates demanded by the protected interests. The Democratic party, believing that a tax is a neces-sary evil, endeavors to limit the tax to the actual needs of the government economically administered.

PRESIDENT SELECTED NOMINEE The present campaign presents another tendency of the Republican party, namely, to substitute a presi-dential successor for the Democratic plan of popular selection. The pres-ident felt it his duty to select a Repubplan of popular selection. The president felt it his duty to select a Republican nominee, and, having reached the conclusion that he ought to select such a nominee, he brought the influence of his great office to bear in behalf of the candidate of his personal choice, and is now using his influence to secure the election of the candidate whom he assisted in nominating.

"If Mr. Roosevelt can pick out the Republican candidate this year and then use the prestige of his office and the influence of the army of office-holders to elect him, may not Mr. Taft pick out a successor and elect him, and so on from administration to administration. It is no defense of such an interference with the popular will to say the guilty party means well. Kings have often meant well whenever they have suppressed free speech and representative government, and in aristocracles the few have often meant well when they rode roughshod over the opinions of the multitude. Our government rests upon the will of the people and any interference with the free choice of the people, either before nominations or after nominations, is contrary to the spirit of our institutions."

"The time to correct this abuse and to stop this tendency is now. If this attempt is successful, it will be regarded as a precedent for another attempt.

CENTRALIZATION TENDENCY.

will be less aroused by repetition of the attempt.

CENTRALIZATION TENDENCY.

"The third dangerous tendency of the Republican party is toward centralization. Its leaders are inclined to overlook state lines and to advocate legislation and administrative methods which enlarge the central government. The safety of the union depends upon preservation of the distinction drawn in the Constitution between state and nation. The nation has its delegated powers; the state its reserved powers. Only by the recognition of this division can the balance between state and nation be maintained.

"Fourth—In its advocacy of imperialism the Republican party tends to ignore all constitutional restraints, for it administers a government in the Philippine islands without constitutional limitations. The ignoring of the Constitution in dealing with the Philippine Islands to the weakening of the Constitution at home and tends also to a disregard of constitutional principles of government.

"The fifth Republican tendency to which I call your attention is the tendency toward Socialism. The Republican party is loud in its denunciation of Socialism, but it is constantly feeding and augumenting the socialistic spirit. It permits abuses which cast an odium upon individualism and furnish an argument to the Socialists. It cultivates the idea that the government must act as a wet nurse for favored industries instead of cultivating industrial independence and a spirit of self-reliance. In its latest national platform it boildy declares that reasonable profits should be guaranteed to the principle of monopoly on the theory that competition is hurtful. In taking this position is supports the main contention of the Socialists. Mr. Taft, the Republican candidate, in the speech announcing his candidacy, advocated such amendment of the anti-trust law as would make it apply only to unreasonable restraint of trade. The idea that reasonable restraint of trade is unobjectionable is the entering wedge—it is the first step towards the annihilatior of the pr

DEMOCRATIC POSITION.

"The Democratic party has been called a Socialistic party and I have been denounced as a Socialist. I contend that the Republican party, not the Democratic party, is alding the Socialist party; and that is evidenced from the fact that Socialist leaders prefer Republican success to Democratic success. They fear the Democratic reforms will retard Socialism, and they believe that Republican abuses can be used to arouse opposition to the entire competitive system. The Democratic party believes that the Socialist is honest, but mistaken. The Democratic party would argue with the Socialist, while the Republican party denounces him; but the Democratic party would remove the spirit of unrest and discontent by climinating the abuses that are the foundation of unrest and discontent. DEMOCRATIC POSITION.

the foundation of unrest and discontent.

"We appeal to the sober sense of the American people and ask that they join us in the inauguration of reforms which will restore the government to its old foundations and win for the government the love of all the people by making it the protector of every class and the friend of every legitimate interest and enterprise."

Mr. Bryan spent the night at the home of Mr. Melbert Carey and will leave tomorrow for New Haven and Providence.

IOWA MULCT LAW.

U. S. District Judge Smith McPherson Decclares it Illegal.

ort. La., Sept. 19 .- According Davenport, La., Sept. 19.—According to a decision rendered yesterday by Judge Smith McPherson of the United States circuit court, the Iowa mulct law system, under which saloons are now operating is illegal. Judge McPherson further declares the Iowa mulct law is no license system and that there has been no license system in Iowa for the last quarter of a century, and for that length of time there has never been a lawful sale of liquor as a beverage within the state of Iowa. as a beverage within the state of Iowa. He further holds that no person under any circumstance can lawfully sell liand the people having submitted once I quor as a beverage in Iowa.

The decision was made in a suit of the United Breweries company of Chicago versus the Civic Federation of Davenport. The complainants charged the federation with a conspiracy and sought to enjoin them from abating property on which a saloon had been closed. Judge McPherson denied the application for a writ of injunction.

Under the mulci law Iowa saloon-keepers have been paying $600 annually as a tax with the understanding that as a tax with the understanding that it legalized their sale of intoxicants and gave them relief from the old prohibitory law, which is still on the statute books.
